RATIONALE

- The Parent Code of Conduct is a document that represents what we as a school community expect of parents and other members of the community. It highlights the important partnership between school staff and community members for the benefit of all the students at the school. This document recognises and respects the diversity of individuals in a learning community and details some of the responsibilities parents have in the education of their children.

AIMS

- To ensure the Croydon Primary School community has a clear understanding of the school's values.

Implementation

- Parents are expected to:
 - Ensure regular and punctual school attendance.
 - Actively support whole school and DET initiatives such as student attendance, dress code, homework and home school partnerships.
 - Uphold the high expectations of the school community.
 - Accept and support initiatives that have come about through the appropriate school channels.
 - Ensure regular communication through school diaries, conversations with staff and letters to teachers.
 - Make appointments to see staff or to visit classrooms.
 - Use appropriate channels to discuss concerns relating to children and staff.
 - Mutual respect is expected between parents and staff.
 - Model appropriate language and behaviours, such as using the school crossing and ensuring your child is SunSmart
 - Work in partnership with the school for the benefit of your children.
 - Ensure children practise personal hygiene and maintain regular head lice checks.
 - Accept that others may have different views, opinions and values.
 - Understand and support different teaching and learning styles.
 - Be an active part of the school community by attending parent teacher interviews, information nights and major school events.
 - Celebrate the educational successes of your child.
 - Encourage school community involvement for your children and yourself.
